

Study Abroad Opportunities for Classics Majors in GREECE

	Place	Time	Classics Courses	Other Electives	Truman Program?	Cost*	Deadline
College Year in Athens (CYA)	the program is based in Athens, but features field trips to many important sites	Semester, Year, or Summer	Ancient Greek (all levels), Advanced Latin, Art, Archaeology, Mythology, History, and Philosophy	Modern Greek, East Mediterranean Studies (Ecology, Religion, Gender and Sexuality, Politics, Byzantine Art and Architecture)	no, but we have a relationship with the program; they invite students with a serious interest in the Classics to apply	$18,200 for the semester includes tuition, room and partial board, as well as tickets to museums and metro; does not include airfare; $2950-3600 three week summer course	apps for Fall due early May apps for Summer due by early March apps for Spring due mid October
Classics Advanced Semester Program (CASP)	the program is based in Athens, but features trips to all the main sites in Attica, the Peloponnese and Delphi, as well as to the islands of Paros and Anaphi (via Santorini)	Semester	Advanced Ancient Greek (language), Ancient Greek History, Greek Epigraphy, Ancient Topography	Modern Greek (language)	no, but the Hellenic Education & Research Center (HERC) invites students with a "background and strong interest in the Classics" to apply	$15,500 for the semester includes tuition, room and partial board, as well as tickets to museums and metro; does not include airfare	apps for Fall due by mid May apps for Spring due by mid November
Missouri in Greece	the program is based in Athens but features field trips to many important archaeological sites	Spring Semester	Classical Literature and Civilization in Translation, Anthropology, History, Art/Archaeology; NO Ancient Greek or Latin	Modern Greek (language), Modern Greek Culture, History, Politics, Literature, and Italian Language and Cinema	yes, we belong to the sponsoring consortium	7800 Euros (about $10,050) includes tuition, housing, accommodations, as well as tickets to museums and sites; does not include airfare or meals	apps for Spring due by early October

Sacred Sites in Greece	Destinations include Athens, Delphi, Corinth and either south to Mykonos or north to Verginia	Three Weeks					no offering planned in near future; course still listed in the catalog
American College of Thessaloniki	Thessaloniki, field trips may include Athens and Verginia	Semester	Greek History, Art/Architecture, Folklore, Literature, Philosophy; NO courses in Latin or Ancient Greek (language)	Modern Greek (language), Modern Greek History and Literature; many courses in business administration	yes, we belong to the sponsoring consortium	$8360 does not include airfare, board, or lodging	apps for Fall due by mid May apps for Spring due by mid October

NOTE: the information on this handout is as accurate as possible; please consult the official websites for more specific details.

For further information, visit these web sites:

www.cyathens.org (College Year in Athens)

<http://www.herc.gr/>(click on academic programs for Classics Advanced Semester Program)

<http://www.studyinggreece.org/> (Missouri in Greece)

www.ccisabroad.org/greecesemester.html and www.act.edu/index.jsp (The American College of Thessaloniki)

<http://www2.truman.edu/~sdr/StudyAbroad.htm> (Sacred Sites in Greece)

*Don't be discouraged by the cost of these programs! This will no doubt be the most expensive semester of your undergraduate education, but it will also be the most memorable!

This list includes only some of the many possible sources of funding available:

Truman Foundation Scholarships

Eta Sigma Phi Scholarships

Pershing Scholarships

Cultural Loans ($5,000 max) from Truman (required minimum 2.5 grade point average based on Truman course work)

Most programs have scholarships ranging from $400-$5,000 for excellent students who demonstrate need

See the Center for International Education's web site for advice about financing study abroad:

<http://studyabroad.truman.edu/finaid.stm>

Talk to someone in Truman's financial aid office for more information about options available to you.

Study Abroad Opportunities for Classics Majors in ITALY

	Place	Time	Classics Courses	Other Electives	Truman Program?	Cost*	Deadline
Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome	Rome	Semester	Intermediate and Advanced Latin; Intermediate and Advanced Greek ; The Ancient City (archaeology, urban & social history, plus topography)	Elementary Italian, Renaissance and Baroque Art History	no; this program is sponsored by the Duke University; they invite students with a serious interest in the Classics to apply	$25,600 includes tuition, room and partial board, as well as tickets to museums; does not include airfare	apps for Fall due in early March apps for Spring due in early October
Orvieto International Institute of Classical Studies	Orvieto: an Etruscan hill-top town in Umbria; population: 20,000	Semester or Summer	Elementary and Intermediate Latin; Classical Literature, Art and Archaeology; NO Advanced Latin, or Ancient Greek	Communication, Italian, Political Science, and Studio Art	no; this program is sponsored by the University of Arizona; they invite students of all majors to apply	$11,000; includes full tuition, housing, and field trips; does not include airfare and meals; $5000 for summer course	apps for Fall due in mid April apps for Summer due by mid March apps for Spring due by mid October
American University of Rome	Rome	Semester	Elementary and Intermediate Latin; Elementary Greek; Art History, Archaeology, History of Ancient Rome	Italian, Italian Studies (Literature, Cinema, Civilization, and Society)	yes, we belong to the sponsoring consortium	$9180; does not include airfare, meals, or lodging	apps for Fall due by mid May apps for Spring due by mid October

NOTE: the information on this handout is as accurate as possible; please consult the official websites for more specific details.

For further information, visit these web sites:

http://studyabroad.duke.edu/home/Programs/Semester/ICCS_Rome (Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome)

<http://www.arizonainitaly.org/> (Orvieto Study Abroad Program)

www.ccisabroad.org/romesemester.html and www.aur.edu/index.php (American University of Rome)

*Don't be discouraged by the cost of these programs! This will no doubt be the most expensive semester of your undergraduate education, but it will also be the most memorable!

This list includes only some of the many possible sources of funding available:

Truman Foundation Scholarships

Eta Sigma Phi Scholarships

Pershing Scholarships

Cultural Loans ($5,000 max) from Truman (required minimum 2.5 grade point average based on Truman course work)

Most programs have scholarships ranging from $400-$5,000 for excellent students who demonstrate need.

See the Center for International Education's web site for advice about financing study abroad:

<http://studyabroad.truman.edu/finaid.stm>

Talk to someone in Truman's financial aid office for more information about options available to you.